

Important silver soup tureen. Circular, resting on a platter, which is richly decorated with a matt, intertwined border. With moulded piecrust border. The soup tureen body is identically decorated and underlined with added thread work and embellished with two grips, in the form of a curled leaf and surmounted with a lid that is dominated by a finial in the form of a cauliflower laying on a bouquet of foliage.

Bowls

Table centrepiece in solid silver. Minerva hallmark. End of the 19th century.

Ewer, jugs

Decanter of white glass, mount in the style of Louis XIII. Cardeilhac.

Decanter of cut, white crystal mounted on chiselled gilt. Risler and Carré.

Pair of silver and crystal decanters. Bodies with vertical ribbed decoration, the neck has a double jointed handle and the hinged lid is decorated with foliage and a thread work border.

Minerva. Silversmith Risler and Carré